All: Holy God, you have given us grace to discern the way we should go amid all the paths of the world. You have shown us wisdom and understanding and offered us the chance to choose good over evil. We haven't always been as thoughtful in our discernment as we could be. We have sometimes let our path be chosen for us. Teach us to have wise and understanding minds, so that we may be responsible members in community. Let us not focus on riches or possessions, but strive only to serve your people. Amen.
